THE LINCOLN FOUNDATION NAMES 3 NEW BOARD MEMBERS

The Lincoln Foundation for Performance Excellence is pleased to announce that the following three business people have been elected to serve on its Board of Trustees: William Gargiulo, III, Vice President of Organizational Effectiveness for the Health Care Service Corporation (HCSC); Timothy Wild, Vice President Consumer Business for Life Fitness – Brunswick Corporation; and Douglas Whitley, President and CEO Illinois Chamber of Commerce.

Paul G. Kuchuris, Jr., President and CEO of the Foundation, said, “We are fortunate to have such strong individuals with background and experience in organizational and quality join the Board. Their experience and guidance will be a solid asset in driving The Foundation to the next level of contribution to the state of Illinois.”

The Lincoln Foundation is an organization dedicated to promoting directing organizational growth and continuous performance improvement for all varieties of organizations. The Lincoln Award for Excellence is the state of Illinois’ quality recognition process. The award criteria follow the established, and highly prestigious, Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Program. Each year the Foundation presents awards at three levels for performance excellence. For more information regarding The Lincoln Foundation, visit the Foundation’s website at www.lincolnaward.org.
